Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1 and 12 the limitation "nitrogen content given in an atomic ratio of O:N is higher than 65:35" is confusing. Typically higher than 65:35 would be contents such as 70:30 and greater.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 7, 14 and 15 are objected to because of the following informalities: Applicants are requested to correct "GPa". This is the second request. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC §102 and 103

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
5. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Kobayashi et al (4,957,883), for reasons of record.

Applicants have not argued this rejection.

6. Claims 1-10,12-17,19,20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Sterzel et al (4,859,639), for reasons of record.

Applicant's argument that the glass of the instant invention is transferred (crystallized?) in a reversible manner while Sterzel crystallizes in an irreversible manner is not persuasive in overcoming the rejection because the limitation is not present in the claims or the instant disclosure. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

It is agreed that Sterzel teaches a crystallized article however Sterzel also teaches when the temperature is maintained between 1200-1350°C a glassy molding is formed (column 3, lines 25-28).

In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., the presence of both oxygen and nitrogen in the claimed process and the presence of silicon dioxide) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Furthermore, the instant claims do not require the presence of any oxygen in that the content of N may be 100, therefor oxygen would not be present. It is noted that 'y' in the claims may be "N or N together with O".

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
